Poisoned by Absorption

POISON OAK, POISON IVY, BARBER'S ITCH, LEAD AND BRASS POISONING, ETC.

Through the pores of the skin many poisons are absorbed into the blood, deranging the circulation and affecting the constitution as quickly and seriously as those generated within the system. Just under the skin are innumerable hair-like blood vessels, and connecting these with the skin are millions of small tubes or glands, through which the poison is conveyed to the blood system. During the spring and summer, while the skin is most active and the pores well open, we are much more liable to be affected by Poison Oak and Ivy and other dangerous plants. Workers in brass, copper, lead and zinc have their health impaired and the blood supply poisoned through the absorption of fine particles of these metals and the acids used in polishing and cleaning them. Inhaling the fumes of lead give painters that pallid, waxy appearance of the skin. Barber's Itch is another disease that reaches the blood through the skin, and is a most obstinate one when it becomes firmly fixed in the system. After the poison has reached the blood and been disseminated throughout the system it is too late to resort to local applications. In many cases the blood is affected simultaneously with the appearance of the rash or eruption on the skin, and all efforts should be directed to the purification and building up of the blood. Ugly eruptions and sores will continue to break out in spite of salves, washes, soaps or other external treatment.

S. S. S. is especially recommended for poisons of this character. So completely does it destroy the effects of the Oak and Ivy that there is no possibility of its reappearance, and it is equally as efficacious in brass or lead poisoning or Barber's Itch; building up and purifying the blood and driving out of the circulation impurities of every kind, and removing every blemish, sore or eruption from the skin. There is no substitute for S. S. S.; it is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the safest and best in all constitutional or blood diseases.

Our Medical Consultation Department.—If you desire any special information or advice about your case, write our physicians, explaining your condition, and they will carefully consider what you have to say and you will receive a prompt reply. Our physicians have made a study of blood and skin diseases, and you can have the benefit of their experience and skill without any cost to you whatever. Don't hesitate to write fully about yourself, as nothing you say goes beyond our office. We have a very interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases, which we will be glad to mail free.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECK

Six Cars Jump the Track—Two are Overturned and One Smashed.

A DEFECTIVE FISH PLATE THE CAUSE

No One Hurt and Traffic was Only Delayed a Little While.

A Southern Pacific local freight train was partly wrecked this morning at 6 o'clock in the yards about 300 yards from the depot. Six cars jumped the track, one was turned over on its side, another tilted up at an angle, one side being three feet in the air and the wheels of the other imbedded in the ground, and a third car loaded with lumber, was smashed and the lumber piled up on another track. The freight train, under charge of Conductor Johnson, consisted of about thirty cars and was loaded with lumber and oil tanks consigned to Beaumont. The train was from Lake Charles. It pulled into the station at 6 o'clock this morning and had reached the point at about 300 yards from the depot, at which place is a switch. The accident was caused by the absence of two bolts from the fish plate, which unites the rails at the switch. The switch engine and two freight cars passed over the track safely, when the rails of the open switch began to spread and next six cars jumped the track and ploughed along on one rail and on the ties for a distance of about fifty feet when two of them turned partly over, and a third was wrecked. The wrecked car was the first to jump the track and ran against a switch engine that was standing on an adjoining track. The switch engine was badly battered and was shortly afterward hauled off to the roundhouse for repairs. The engine of the wrecked train was only slightly damaged, if at all, as this engine and the three forward cars had passed safely through the switch before the spreading of the rails. Very little damage was done, considering the length of the freight train. The open cars, on which were the oil tanks, were at the end of the train and were not in the least damaged. The oil tanks were empty. The wrecking trains were soon on the spot and the work of clearing the train proceeded lively. The morning train from New Orleans was delayed a few moments in the yard. The engine was detached and cleared the main line when it pulled into the depot. No one was hurt in the wreck.

A SPLENDID BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY SNAPPED UP.

For a long time Beaumont has languished in the need of a real up-to-date confectionery store—something dainty and nice, properly located and properly managed and at last the much longed for event is to be consummated. Mr. Laurens Block, a bright and popular young business man of Natchez, Miss., has leased and fitted up the corner room of the new Threadneedle building, No. 275 Pearl street, where he will keep the finest of candies and confections and dispense cold drinks of every description from a new modern fountain and also has coffee and chocolate. A fine line of imported cigars for his male customers will be a specialty. He wishes to call attention to his opening announcement to be made in these columns soon.

JASPER NEWS NOTES.

Jasper, Tex., July 16.—Active work began yesterday morning on two handsome, two story bricks on the corner of Main and Houston streets. This is the first work towards rebuilding the burnt district. It has been a matter of concern with our people as to what the fate of Jasper would be after the fire.

L. P. Scarborough describes the credit of having the nerve to build again and to build a brick. Although being put back several years by the loss of a new house and stock, he sets an example to others by his nerve and energy and shows his confidence in old Jasper, thus starting the brick house boom which will be followed by others as fast as brick can be burned.

The large frame, two story, double store building being erected by A. L. Duncan is nearing completion. This is on the corner of Main and Travis and was started previous to the fire. The Jeff Davis Rifles are drilling every day preparatory to attending the state encampment. Old Captain Kellie is awful proud of his company and thinks the boys are all his own. They will pass through the city on Thursday next.

You people had better keep things hot regarding deep water into the mouth of the Neches. I overheard a conversation while in your city regarding the matter and the parties were saying it would never do to let that canal from Port Arthur be cut. The other one said: "We will never let the government do it, and these Beaumonters will not do it themselves. I wanted to put in my lip and tell them we'd see about that, but they were strangers to me and I was afraid I'd get into a scrap. I can't help it, but I want to scrap with anybody who says anything detrimental to Beaumont. We will soon have the railroad and then—well, you folks can come up and take a bath in Sandy Creek, the best, prettiest and purest water in Texas." Jasper.

FAINTED AND WENT BACK.

Bargain counter rushes have been compared to mass tackles in football, but the first authenticated instance tending to substantiate the comparison is reported from Cincinnati. A dispatch to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says:

"In a bargain sale rush of women at the Knox 10-cent store on West Fifth street today two women fainted. No assistance was given them until several men who were standing in front of the Rand Hotel rushed in and carried them to the hotel. Two of the rescuers went out to ask some women in the crowd to come and open their corsages and assist in reviving them, but not a woman would leave the bargain counters. The men went back and revived the women as best they could.

"The women gave their names as Mrs. Susie Ennis, Hopkins street, and Mrs. Poland, East Walnut Hills. After being revived Mrs. Ennis went back to the store but fainted a second time and was revived with difficulty in the manager's office."

THERE WILL BE DANCING.

At the request of a large number of young ladies and gentlemen the management of the Caledonian Picnic have decided to have a grand ball added to the other amusements. There will be a prize for the best lady and gentleman dancer, and also a prize for the handsomest young lady and the ugliest young man. Professor Snowy will arrange some new music especially for this occasion. The committee desire to state that there will be a Tots Ticket issued for the little people and a nominal charge of only 10 cents will be charged for those tickets. There will be two performances of the Wild West on the second day, the 28th.

MRS. SNOW'S CLAIM.

The Essence of the Point at Issue. Rests With the Court.

Sherman, Tex., July 16.—In the Federal court for the eastern district of Texas, Judge Bryant presiding in chambers, the application of Mrs. Annie E. Snow for the appointment of a receiver for certain oil producing lands in and around Beaumont was resumed this morning. Mrs. Snow is the relict of the son of the man to whom the land in question was patented by the Republic of Mexico, 66 years ago. She claims a life interest only in one eighteenth of the tract. There is no question as to her identity, nor that she held the relationship to the son and heir to the man to whom the land was patented. The principal point to settle is whether or not, if her right to life interest is established, it will cover a right to her proportionate part of the minerals, including oil.

Mr. W. H. Greer of Beaumont made the closing argument for defendants. Judge R. R. Hazelwood of Sherman made the closing argument for the plaintiff. It is not likely that a decision will be reached for several days.

COMPLIMENTARY PARTY.

A large number of the young society people of the city gathered at the residence of Alderman Ives on Forsyth street last night to meet Miss Bertha Ives, the handsome and accomplished niece of the hostess. Fine music and delicious refreshments were provided and the guests enjoyed themselves until a late hour, all pronouncing the affair a great pleasure and success.

MACHINISTS' STRIKE DECLARED OFF.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—At the machinists' international headquarters it was admitted this morning that the strike declared on May 20 was for an eight hour day and is practically closed. Most of the men returned to work. In many shops the machinists won and in many others they lost. The strike is still on in full force on the Pacific coast at the ship building plants, where it will be fought to a finish.

IN JAIL FOR THE FIFTIETH TIME.

Philadelphia North American. Pittston, Pa.—John Hogan, aged 60 years, went to jail Wednesday for the fiftieth time in three years. He has served more sentences in jail than any other man in Luzerne county, and says he is lonesome when he does not see the warden at the county prison.

Hogan has been in jail every Christmas and New Year's day in the last fifteen years. He has been charged with almost every trivial offense on the law calendar.

SECRETARY ROOT AT LEAVENWORTH.

Fort Leavenworth, July 17.—Secretary of War Root and party arrived here today. They were met by Colonel Leek, post commandant, with a troop of the Fourteenth cavalry. The entire post was under arms to greet the secretary and a salute of seventeen guns was fired.

A 999 YEAR LEASE EXPIRED IN LONDON.

From a London Letter. The age of London and the immutable system of affairs is illustrated by the fact that a 999-year lease expired here the other day and the property was taken possession of by the original lessor, the chapter of Westminster parish. The lessee was the town, and the property has been in its possession continually since the original lease was made. I do not think such a thing could occur in any other city, but there are said to be several similar leases about to expire, which were made at very near the same time.

Another interesting fact is that a bank note for £5 issued in 1816 was presented for redemption at the Bank of England the other day. It was found among the possessions of an old lady who died in Wales and was probably inherited by her from one of her ancestors.

MARSHALL FIELD AN UNPROMISING BOY.

Saturday Evening Post. When Marshall Field was in his teens his father decided he would make a merchant of the boy, and took him to Pittsfield, where he was placed in the store of a family friend. The father returned to Conway and several months passed before he again visited Pittsfield to learn what progress his son was making. The keeper of the store received the father of his apprentice very cordially, but hesitated for a moment when he was asked "How's the boy coming?" "Hate to say it," was the reply, "but I guess you might as well take him back with you. The fact is, I don't think he's cut out for a merchant." This anecdote is one of the chief traditions of Pittsfield and is related with great relish by men whose recollections cover the period of Mr. Field's boyhood apprenticeship. Mr. Field is a plain, reticent man without pretension to any fads or special lines of philanthropic interest, and finds his chief recreation in the game of great affairs.
